Payment history feature. Where do we stand?
- BR brandon.lewis Jan 20 09:03 PM
Still working through scope. More edge cases than I initially estimated.
- TR trevor.park Jan 20 09:05 PM
You said you'd have a timeline Friday. That was last week.
- BR brandon.lewis Jan 20 09:08 PM
The data access patterns are more complex than the initial spec. I want to make sure we don't have to redo this.
- TR trevor.park Jan 20 09:10 PM
I need to give sales something. They're asking me every day.
- BR brandon.lewis Jan 20 09:12 PM
Let me get you a revised estimate by Wednesday.

Wednesday. Holding you to that.

And loop Maya in on design. She's been waiting.

Hey! Quick question on the notification spec - are we supporting push notifications or just in-app for v1?
- BR brandon.lewis Dec 11 08:42 PM
Just in-app for v1. Push is a stretch goal for next sprint.
- MA maya.chen Dec 11 08:44 PM
Makes sense. That simplifies the design a lot actually
- MA maya.chen Jan 8 04:30 PM

Hey Brandon,

Random thing, I was finishing up the design system migration last night and noticed you were active on Slack around 2:30 AM. Not judging at all, just wanted to make sure you're good. You've seemed a little stretched lately.

Also, Trevor pulled me aside today asking where we are on the payment feature designs. I told him I'm still waiting on the finalized spec from you. He seemed frustrated. Want to sync so I have something concrete to tell him next time he asks?

Hi Brandon,

Here's that article I mentioned. I thought the section on recognizing when external pressure conflicts with your own values was particularly relevant to what we've been discussing.

<https://psychologytoday.com/us/blog/competing-obligations-boundaries>

No need to read the whole thing — just the first few sections. We can unpack it Thursday.

Best,

Dr. Okafor

Hey Brandon,

I have a conflict with our usual Thursday 11 AM, the Figma design systems team needs me on a call that morning. Any chance we could shift our sync to 4:00 PM instead? I know you usually have something around then but figured I'd ask.

If that doesn't work, I'm also free Wednesday after 3.
